While at work yesterday in the creamery in Montpelier owned by Cameron & Blanchard, Isaac Welch was quite badly burned about the neck and chest. Mr. Welch was engaged in heating some water when in some manner it tipped upon him. Although not very serious the burns will necessitate Mr. Welch's absence from work for several days.

Low prices and special values is the key-note to the summer clearance sales going on at the store of A. A. Smith & Brother, Miles granite building, this week. The things that are especially emphasized are, hosiery, shirts, collars, underwear, ties, cuff buttons, shirt buttons, suspenders, working shirts, men's and women's shoes, etc. A visit to them will open up to the mind a revelation in intrinsic values. Read their advertisement on the 4th page.

Last night was a gala night at the Castle Park theatre. It was Amateur Night and a beautiful silver cup was presented to the winner, Master David Dickey by Shepard's Moving Picture and Novelty company. The rivalry between the contestants was great, next to the winner came Master Pratt Troup in Scottish dance. Davidson and Botinelli did a three round boxing act and were awarded the booby prize. The pictures were as usual highly appreciated. Mr. Hagan scored another big hit with his magnificent rendition of "The Sweetest Girl in Dixie." Miss Wescott, dainty and pleasing as ever, was repeatedly encored, and Mr. Wm. Seibel kept the audience in a happy state of mind during intermission by his clever piano selections. This company is given the credit of being the best ever seen at the Castle Park theatre and tonight being the last chance will no doubt do a record breaking business.
